Director's News

Report cards will be coming home this Friday. We will have conferences next Monday-Wednesday, so please be sure to sign up with your teacher if you haven't already. Our standards-based report cards are designed to give you a snapshot of your child's progress towards mastery of grade level standards.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday are minimum days next week for conferences.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our See's Candy fundraiser!

The first of two enrollment periods for next school year begins December 14. Please help spread the word about Walden to friends and family. We offer ten volunteer hours for referrals.

You can find more information about our enrollment periods here:

Dear Parents

Walden Academy is now listed on GreatSchools.org, a website with information for families on their community schools. GreatSchools allows families to rate schools and provide feedback. Please take a moment and share your Walden experience:

Did you know that we have lots of kid-friendly website links on our Walden Academy homepage?

You can make www.waldenacademy.org the homepage on your family's computer and your child will have access to fun and appropriate educational websites.

You can also visit <http://www.waldenacademy.org/Parents/Board/index.html> for agendas and minutes from Walden Academy's board meetings.

We recently sent home your volunteer hours for this school year. If you did not receive a balance, we do not have volunteer hours recorded for you yet. If you need hours, please contact your teacher or our front office. We have plenty of projects/duties available!
